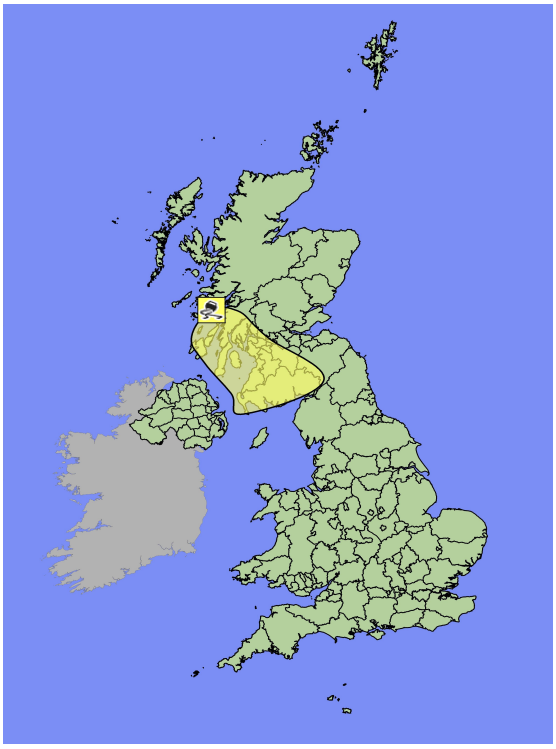
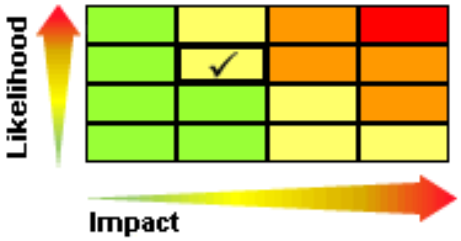
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Further slight accumulations of snow are possible into the early hours of Tuesday morning. As temperatures fall under clearing skies, ice becomes the main concern as lying and melted snow refreezes.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Ice

Valid from 00:05 on Tue, 22nd Jan 2013 until 11:00 on Tue, 22nd Jan 2013

Outbreaks of sleet and snow will die out on Monday night and as temperatures fall, icy stretches will form on many untreated roads, these lasting well into Tuesday morning. The public are advised to take extra care.
